

Ecovis in Heidelberg

Richard Hoffmann and his team will provide you with profound legal advisory in our Heidelberg law firm. We advise our clients in legal and tax matters with commitment and expertise.

One of our focus areas is advising Chinese companies and founders on their way into the German and European market. In addition, we advise medium-sized companies from Germany and Europe who want to venture into China. We are your competent partner when it comes to tax, accounting, labor and company law as well as related issues when entering the Chinese market.

We offer tailor-made solutions for international companies operating in China and Germany in the areas of tax and legal advice as well as accounting and auditing. In order to achieve the best results for our clients, we work closely with colleagues from other Ecovis locations.

Our firm was founded in 2015; our team and the people behind it have been working together since 2006. Rooted in the Rhine-Neckar region and in with long-term experience living and working in China, we know what moves our clients from East and West.

See for yourself. Meet our Ecovis team in Heidelberg and experience how we bring the Ecovis claim to live every day: local faces with global expertise. That's us.
